Meeting on June 13th.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, VA., April 23.—The Board of Visitors of the University, at a meeting held here to-day, sietermined that on the 13th of June it would meet at the University to elect a president, with the powers, duties and responsibilities ordinarily belonging to that officer in the leading American universities, with a salary of $5.00 per annum.
The office of chairman of the faculty is to cease on the date of the installation of the president, but until that time it is to remain unaffected. The time for the installation of the president has not been fixed. The secretary of the board was instructed to give notice in a Richmond paper, The Times-Dispatch, as required by law. The meeting of the board was naturally the cause of much conjecture as to whom that body favored for the presidency, but the visitors themselves gave no intimation of preference.
